Scouts must READ the current merit badge book and BRING the current book to class with the completed prerequisites listed on each merit badge prior to the event. If a Scout uses information found on the internet it should correspond to that found in the current merit badge book. The day of the event the Scouts should be prepared to actively participate in discussions and present the material required. As in the past Scouts who come prepared will be able to complete the merit badge the day of the event. Those who require extra time will have the counselor's name and phone number so they can make arrangements to complete the merit badge at a later date. The merit badge counselor has the final say as to whether the Scout has completed the merit badge.

Bring a Blue Card signed by your unit leader (Scoutmaster) for each of the three Merit Badges.

The UNIFORM for this event is Class "A" from the waist up. *All other optional i.e., pants, shorts, caps and or sash. Bring your unit Class "B" T-Shirt
